

NORDRE EBERG GT. 1B
7051 TRONDHEIM

Phone +4773953701
Cellular: +47993934
Epost: wanja.jorgensen@hist.no

Wanja Jørgensen

Working experience Associated Teaching Professor at Department of Public Health and Nursing NTNU (2002-dd)

International Coordinator at Department of Public Health and Nursing NTNU (2019 - dd)

Nurse

Worked as a intensive neonatal nurse at child intensive care unit of the university hospital in Trondheim ST. Olav

1997 – 1999

Nurse

Worked as a nurse in home - based care in Trondheim municipal care

1995 – 1997 NORAD

Councilors of a cooperation program Managua, Nicaragua

- Working as a pedagogic adviser in an NGO at the headquarter in Managua
- Planning and management of a health program which include 30 communities in Nicaragua.
- Planning and participate in management of a health promotion program for health agents
- Participate in the process of evaluating of the health program

1994

Adviser in health at Norwegian refugee (FORUT)

- Responsibility for health and health teaching program for the refugees
- Responsibility for a woman health program

1990-1992

Working as teacher at Orkdal secondary school

- Responsible for a assistant nursing program

1983-1990

Nurse

- Working as a nurse at the medical unit of ST.Olav hospital Trondheim

Education:

Year	Study	Graduated	University
1981-83	Nursing	Registered nurse	Department of Nursing Program(HIST)
1990	Pedagogy: Curriculum Theory and Schooling	Cand mag	Faculty of pedagogy (NTNU)
1990-91	Pedagogy	Cand. mag	Faculty of pedagogy (NTNU)
1993	Pedagogy	Cand. mag	Faculty of pedagogy (NTNU)
1994	Research methods	Cand. mag	NTNU
1999-2002	Geography health and development: Sociology- Medical sociology Anthropology –Cultural understanding	Cand.polit	Faculty of geography/ health science (NTNU) Faculty of medicine/ health science (NTNU) Faculty of Anthropology (NTNU)
2003	Thesis in Health science	Graduated.Cand.polit	Faculty of Health Science NTNU Department of Nursing
2015	Internationalization	Graduated First Lecture	Department of Public Health and Nursing NTNU